

About Client	Industry	Location	Engagement Details
Client is a leading OEM with global presence	Automotive	Worldwide	Service Type: Web application development  Engagement Model: Onsite / Offsite  Resources Deployed: 10+

Business Need

- Provide support for client developed business modules

Challenge

- Customer has sophisticated processes, tools and staff to develop large, complex solutions. Capability to deliver small solutions has not been developed. Developed “rogue” IS organizations, that need to be supported

Solution

- Provided counter measures
  - Standard environment, process and tools
- Facilitated and supported small and quick development solutions
  - Implement a development strategy using external development services
- Increased customer’s capability to provide small business solutions
- Re-use of common modules
- Provided reliable approach to development planning

Benefits

- External design lead time decreased by 90%
- Developed applications that exceeded user expectations